FARMERS!

If we are to win the war against Germany we must do it mainly by providing food for the armies. The great question NOW is: are we plowing enough acres and are we putting in the best crops? Land that has grown up in bushes should be cleared and plowed and all land or bits of land put in some crop, and we must hold to the same staple crop and give it the best attention. The first thing we must consider is: are we raising enough for our own consumption?

We can not afford to buy sugar, flour and the "outsidethings" and had you thought that we may not be able to get these? We can use honey and sorghum for sweets and in the place of wheat flour we can use corn meal, oat meal and huckwheat. Beans and peas will take the place of the high-priced meats and at the same time we can enrich our soil by growing these crops. Now is the time to smash all the chuds and give more plant food to the crops and to get after the weeds by keeping the soil stirred and in good condition. As soon as the ground is dry enough after rain cultivation should begin with field crops as well as the garden. Don't let the insects get a start on your crop but begin fighting them by spraying.

POTATOES.

Potato bugs—Arsenate of lead paste, 6 pounds to 50 gal. water.

Potato blight—Bordeaux mixture, 6 pounds to 50 gal. water.

Spray every ten days.

BEANS.

Same as for potatoes and spray every ten days.

CABBAGE.

Same as for potatoes and beans.

CUCUMBER, SQUASH and MELONS.

1 gal. air slacked lime and 1 oz. turpentine. Mix this thoroughly and sprinkle on and around the plants in the afternoon.

If these remedies can not be gotten at the drug stores have them to order them at once. If not available at all a great many potato bugs can be killed by use of pan and stick. It is important that you watch these and begin the fight in time.

Just now it looks like a big shortage in cans for fruit and where ever there are cans for sale it will be wise to buy them for the price is going up and we may be unable to buy them later.

There is enough fruit and vegetables that lay on the ground and go to waste in Powell county to feed Kentucky's armies, and why let this continue? A good plan is to save beans, peas and field crops by drying and a large amount of fruit and vegetables should be dried. You can use it in your homes and the market will demand it for the other nations will be looking to us, so let us make every effort to be ready, for the war will be won by the farmers.

For your success, I am,

H. H. HARRISON,
County Agent,
Stanton, Kentucky.

Work Satisfactory to Subscriber.

Frank B. Russell was here this week and went out to his oil field at Furnace. In going over the newly constructed road up Hardwick's creek, Mr. Russell expressed great satisfaction at the progress made and, like all the rest of us, he feels the best road into the oil fields will run from Clay City. It will be remembered that Mr. Russell is the largest subscriber to the Clay City-Furnace Road Fund, having contributed $500 for this road. He has conclusively proved his faith in the enterprise by advancing money enough alone to pay for our fine road machine.

School Entertainment.

The closing of the city school was marked by an excellent program of entertainment by the pupils at the school building Saturday night. Musical selections were rendered, patriotic airs were sung, and numerous recitations and dialogues were delivered, all of which were very interesting to the large audience which crowded the house to overflowing.

Beckham to Name Collector

Senator Beckham will name the Seventh district collector to succeed Ben Marshall, whose term has expired, Secretary McAdoo has announced. Beckham has made a determined fight against Marshall's reappointment, while Senator James and Representative Cantrill supported him.

It is said that Gen. Percy Haley is the man slated for the place.

Encounters Rattler

Quite a number of young folks took an outing to Pilot Knob Saturday. A very exciting time was had when a large rattlesnake was discovered by one of the little girls. The reptile was promptly killed by Prof. Ranson, who was along with the party. The rattler measured over three feet and had eight rattles.

Now in Training

Robert E. Lee Murphy, of Lexington, who opposed Congressman Cantrill for the Democratic nomination two years ago, has joined the officers' reserve corps and is now in training at Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, Ind.

Blackberry Winter.

The few days of warm weather we had this week was broken up Tuesday afternoon by rain in some parts of the county. Wednesday morning it was about as cool as ever. This is what is called by many blackberry winter.

Mt. Sterling Market

The stock market at Mt. Sterling showed a run of 2,500 cattle of good quality, but sales were slow. Yearling steers brought 10 to 11 cents; heifers, 7 to 8½ cents; fat cows at 9 cents; canner cows at 5 cents; bulls at 7 to 8 cents.

Children's Day will be observed at Christian church Sunday School the first Sunday in June.

Bankers and Editors Meet.

Upon the invitation of the Lexington Clearing House, bankers and newspaper men to the number of 150, from all over the Fourth Federal Reserve Bank district, met at Lexington Tuesday and discussed plans for selling and creating an interest in the Liberty Loan Bond issue.

Kentucky's share of the bonds is placed at $16,000,000. All banks were asked to subscribe for bonds to the amount of 10 per cent of their deposits.

All of Powell county is expected to subscribe about $30,000.

Farmers' Meeting

There were a score or more at the Farmers' Meeting in this city last Saturday afternoon. Many very important matters were discussed. Prof. H. H. Harrison also gave a very interesting and instructive talk. Steps were taken to form an organization of the farmers of the county for mutual benefit, and J. B. Eakin, N. V. Rose and G. W. Kerstetter were appointed a committee on such organization to report at some future meeting.

The Sunday School Convention.

The meeting of the First District Sunday School Convention of Powell county, comprising the western portion of the county, met at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and with the Methodist church Sunday afternoon and at night. Good crowds were in attendance and many interesting talks given. The Rev. Thos. B. Talbot, of Lexington, was the leading speaker. He is, indeed, a very pleasing speaker and a splendid Sunday School man.

Caught with the Goods

The people of Louisville are calling heavily for coal; the miners say, "We can't get the cars," and railroads say we cannot possibly supply the cars. And the Louisville Post slipped out, found and photographed hundreds of empty cars on L. & N. side tracks and found the nigger in the wood pile. Now, what you got to say to that?

Valuable Property for Sale

The entire plant and equipment of the Pearsite Company, in bankruptcy, is to be sold at the Company's place of business in this city, Friday, June 22nd.

This is very valuable property and a money-making business, we are informed, but it is not likely that the plant will bring near its worth.

Saw Mill Burns.

Berry Barnett's saw mill stationed on W. F. Barnett's place two miles south of the city burned to the ground Monday night, entailing considerable loss to Mr. Barnett.

Two hundred and fifty thousand horses and mules, costing about $100,000,000, are to be purchased by the Government for use in the army.

Floyd Wills, candidate for Sheriff, from the upper portion of the county, was in this section Tuesday.

A new door is being put in the court house from the office of J. B. Atkinson to the room used as a voting place.

Tomatoes.

Now is the time to begin setting your tomato plants and later set some more for late use. This is a crop we often have enough of in our gardens but the point in mind is to grow enough for canning, preserving, etc., and then have a big crop for sale to be canned for commercial purposes. You have a factory in your county and prices will be paid so you can afford to grow them and a little check looks big to the farmer today. It will help to buy that flour, sugar and feed and many things needed. Take advantage of this opportunity and increase the number of plants, and by so doing you will help yourself and be as patriotic as the man with the gun. Anyone wishing Government bulletins on the growing of tomatoes, cultivation and harvesting of crop can obtain same free of charge from the County Agent, H. H. Harrison, Stanton, Ky.

The room will be used by Atkinson & Son as a law office.

Harvey Wells has joined a submarine company and expects to leave for the waters of Europe to fight German U-boats. He has been on a warship in Cuban waters for several months.

Miss Hazel Thomas Stewart has just arrived this past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stewart, where she expects to make her home for a few years and grow up under the tender care of her father and mother. A. T. says she is the prettiest thing you ever saw.

THE TIMES.

J. E. Burgher, : : Publisher.

Entered as second-class mail matter at the Post Office at Clay City, Ky., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

A HOME-MADE PAPER.

SUBSCRIPTION RATE,
ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1917.

In Kentucky all pupils attending the public schools pay the same price for their text books, and they know from year to year just what the price will be. The publishers, too, know just what profit is in store for them. There can be no increases or decreases. The price is reasonable, both to the buyer and the seller.

When you go to travel on any line of railroad in this State you know that the price will not be more than three cents per mile, and it may be less. This proves very satisfactory to all, though the price is high but it cannot get higher.

Why should not all commodities be so managed, when business is turned into a source of robbery as a subsidiary, with the subsidiary taking the far larger end of it?

We now go to bed at night not knowing but that by morning light the speculators will have increased the cost of the staff of life 20 per cent before breakfast next morning. Something must be done and we are glad to see the Government taking steps to do this.

As an example of what can be done along this line, we will take the State of Oklahoma into consideration. A few years ago that State said to the oil people you can not sell coal oil to the consumer at more than eight cents per gallon. They complied, and while in Kentucky the people must pay fifteen cents per gallon for this necessity, they buy it in Oklahoma for eight cents. The Government can do the same on all trust goods.

But will it?

The Illinois Central Railway operating out of Louisville, has a contract with various western Kentucky coal mines for coal at $1.08 per ton, and can get all the coal the railroad needs at that price.

Citizens of Louisville are forced to pay $7.00 per ton for coal, and can get only a part of what they need at this price. The railroad company thinks the price they have to pay for coal—$1.08 per ton—is too high, and that they can mine it for less; so they have bought a large coal mine in Kentucky at a cost of $500,000 to save expenses.

The people of Louisville think the price they must pay for coal—$7.00 per ton—is too high, also, but they can not buy a coal mine. Neither would they desire to, if they could get coal at three times the price the railroad gets it for.

The day this Government will burst such rotten business as this, the outrageous food speculators and all other pirates of the land, it will have such a hold of loyalty upon its people that it could raise 5,000,000 volunteers easier than it can now get 500,000. And we are advised that this will be done.

The daily papers, Sunday, report one oil deal in Estill county at $11,000,000.

A few months ago, when the Estill county Board of Supervisors raised the oil people so as to make the total taxable property in the county amount to four and one-half millions, they kicked wonderfully and said it was not fair. Another instance of tax dodgers!

Such action as this is what caused the McGlone bill, taxing production, to pass the Legislature. We want development, but we want a little tax money along with it to develop a few public matters particularly roads, which the oil people, together with all citizens, are so sadly in need of.

It is a great pity that all men can not hand out a square deal.

The program for food control suits the Times to a t-y-tee.

The only thing the farmers want is pay for producing the food, and the only thing the consumer wants is to get it at a price near the cost of production, with one little per cent of profit.

Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

Whole Family Benefited By Wonderful Remedy

There are many little things to annoy us, under present conditions of life. The hurry, hard work, noise and strain all tell on us and tend to provoke nervousness and irritability. We are frequently so worn out we can neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. We are out of line with ourselves and others as well.

A good thing to do under such circumstances is to take something like to relieve the strain on the nerves. Mrs. J. B. Hartsfield, 82 Plum St., Atlanta, Ga., writes:

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

"I have on several occasions been vastly relieved by the use of your medicines, especially the Anti-Pain Pills, which I keep constantly on hand for the use of myself, husband and two sons. Nothing in the world equals them as a headache remedy. Often I am enabled by the use of one or two of the pills to continue my housework when otherwise I would be in bed. My husband joins me in my praise of the Anti-Pain Pills and Nervine."

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

Among A Splendid People.

Paul O. Derthick.

The following was written for Stanton Items last week, but crowded out.

The writer is writing this from Travelers' Rest—in Owsley county—where he spent Saturday night at the home of S. A. Candill, and Sunday night with S. P. Candill, two former school mates of Berea College in the years long ago. They are brothers of our esteemed citizen, Green Candill, of Hatton Creek, and just as fine men.

It was a great pleasure to be in their good homes and talk over days of yore, of the great times we used to have at Berea and how pleasant those days were.

Travelers' Rest is a beautiful little village of about 100 inhabitants, and the people are a splendid people to meet. One is quite impressed with the beauty and neatness of this quiet village nestled back in the Mountains. The homes are, almost without exception, painted white; and the yards are kept clean—with flowers in abundance.

The writer attended Mothers' Day Exercises, given by the Sunday School and participated in by almost all the young people of the town. It was a splendid tribute to Mother, the best and dearest friend of earth. And we had the privilege of speaking on mother, and taking part in the Christian Endeavor, which the young people have just started.

Miss Elizabeth Hemphill, under the Presbyterian Church, is doing a splendid work at Travelers' Rest, and the people appreciate her thoroughly. She is full of enthusiasm and zeal, and the young people are getting contagious with it.

ASK THESE TANLAC USERS

Many persons think testimonials for advertised medicines are fakes. Tanlac is a tonic too well known to Kentuckians to need any fake testimonials. Writers of Tanlac's advertising do not quote people living in other states. They give you the names and addresses of your own friends, neighbors and acquaintances right here in the good old Blue Grass State. This advertisement hasn't a word to say for Tanlac. All it does is give you a list of people right here in this state, to whom you may write for particulars about Tanlac. Maybe you know some of these:
